NEWTON COLLEGE OF THE SACRED HEART

NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS

THIS IS NEWTON,

a study in the welding of newness and tradition . . .

. . . of growth . . .

with a changeless
way of life

VBI CARITAS ET AMOR DEVS IBI EST

The Class of 1958 dedicates "The Well" to Our Parents, in gratitude for first showing us the meaning of love, and a way of life based on giving, for the encouragement and the inspiration of your own ideals,

for leading us always to what is best,

for the love and sacrifice which made possible our years at Newton,

for a "liberal" education,
and the understanding of what it is to be made free. . . .

HOUSES

The house plan is one of Newton's oldest traditions. Through the growth and expansion of the past few years, it has remained a firm and unchanging aspect of college life. The passage of Time has only strengthened it. Each house has its own unique spirit, but the spirit of all the houses is one of warmth, generosity and harmony.

This is how it happens . . .
